

Reliable Sources of Information

New York Times
Washington Post
Wall Street Journal
Los Angeles Times
Christian Science Monitor
London Daily Telegraph
London Independent
London Guardian
London Times
London Economist (weekly magazine)

All of the above are generally factually accurate (despite some exceptions). Note that the American news weekly magazines Newsweek, Time, US News are considered relatively weak sources.

Never cite an encyclopedia in a research paper. However, Encyclopedia Britannica is good source to familiarize yourself with a topic before you begin to research it in more serious sources.
